Report

1. Design

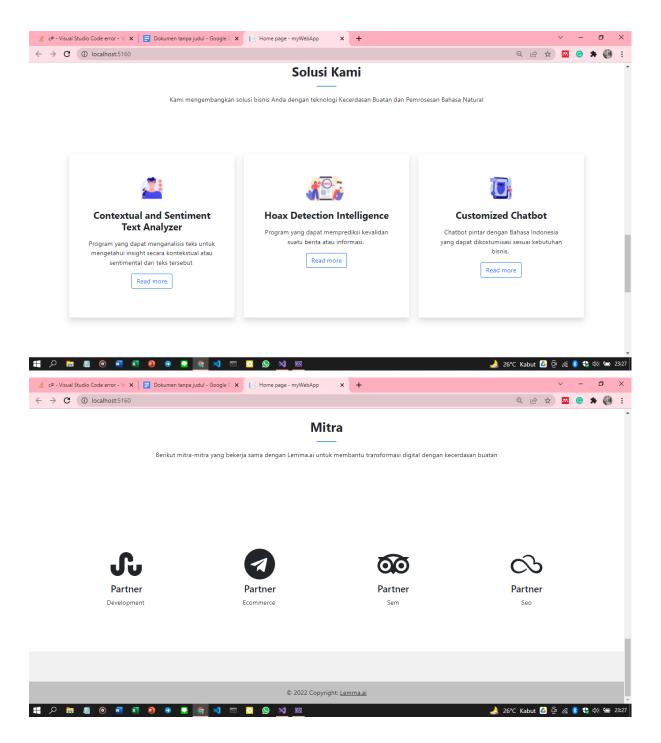

This web application is about startup website. Lemma.ai is a startup engaged in artificial intelligence (AI) and natural language processing (NLP). The products offered are text analyzers, hoax detection intelligence, and customizable chatbots. On the website there are 5 pages, Index which is the front page, solution is a page that contains an explanation of the product, company is a page that explains a brief description of the company, startup is a page that describes a description of the startup profile, and collaboration which contains information about partners, careers, and job vacancies

2. Screenshots

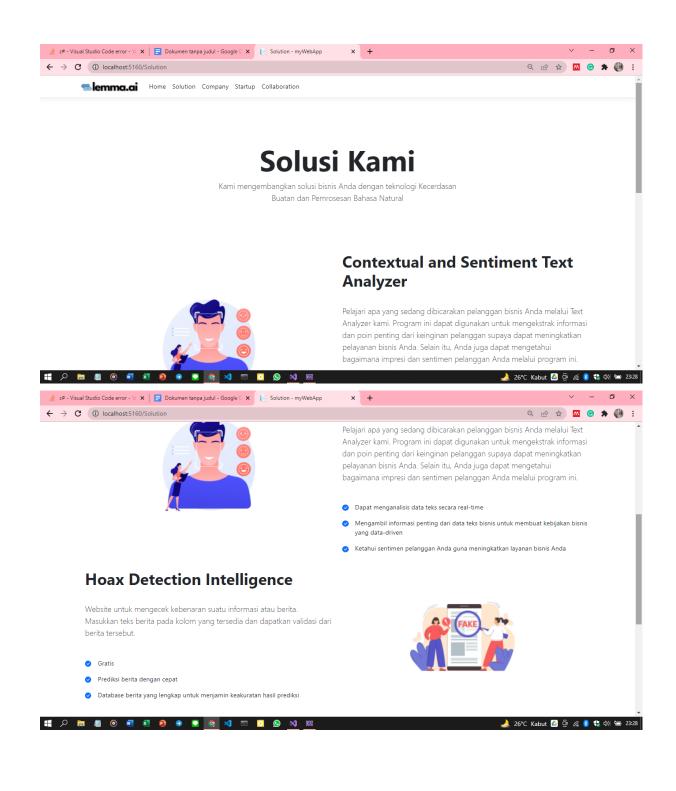

Homepage

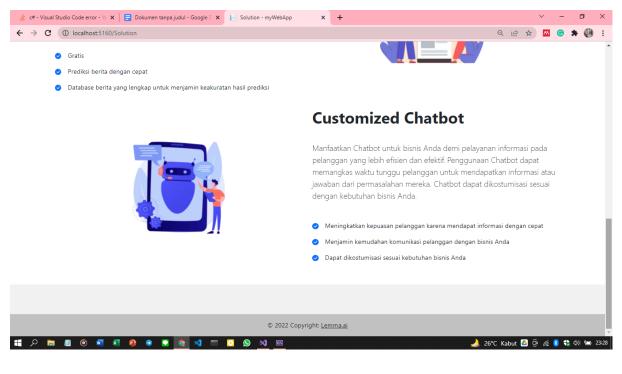

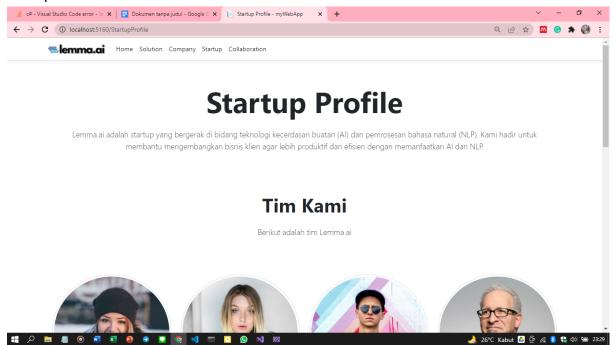

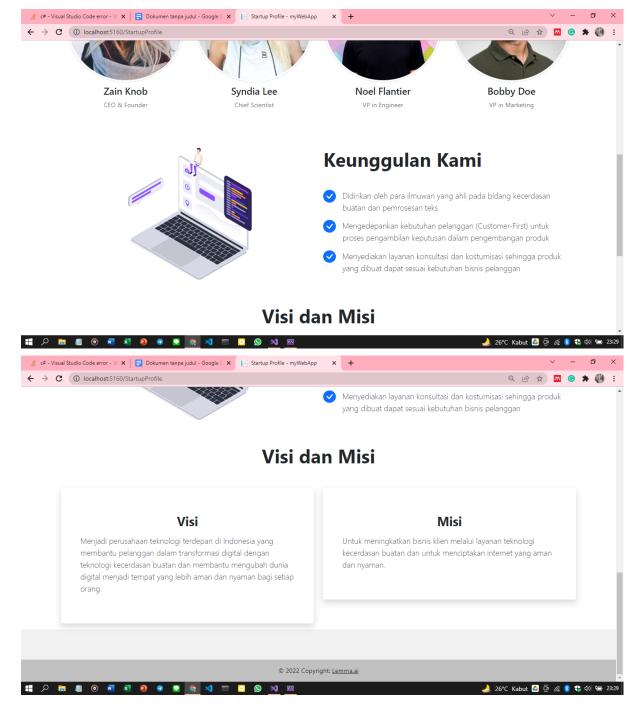

Services

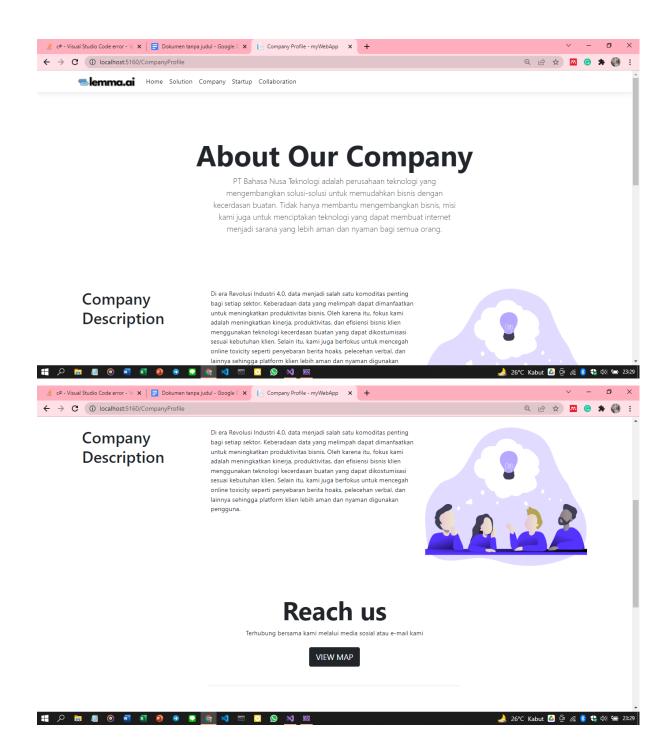

Startup Profile

Company

Collaboration

